MULTILINGUAL REAL ESTATE CONTENT & LANGUAGE SUPPORT

Estonian • English • Russian

Professional translation, editing and linguistic quality assurance for real estate companies working with international audiences and multilingual content.

PROPERTY & MARKETING COPY

- Editing of Estonian property listing source texts and preparation of EN/RU versions
- Copy for property presentations, brochures, sales sheets and commercial proposals
- Website content – service pages, FAQs, articles, agent profiles and case studies
- Marketing copy – landing pages, newsletters, advertising copy and social media content

LEGAL & CLIENT COMMUNICATION

Translation, editing and linguistic review of:

- brokerage, rental and mandate agreements
- handover documents and other transaction-related documentation
- client correspondence and email templates
- client information for different stages of a transaction

MULTILINGUAL CONTENT

- Updating EN/RU content when the Estonian source changes
- Terminology consistency across websites, listings, contracts and client communication
- Consistent style and tone across languages and content types

LANGUAGE QA & CONTENT AUDITS

- Final multilingual checks before publication or delivery
- Detection of omissions and inconsistencies between language versions
- Cross-language checks of names, addresses, prices, areas, property details and terminology
- Linguistic and terminology audits of website content, listings and templates

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

I regularly provide translation and editing services for the Estonian real estate sector, including website content and client documentation in Estonian, English and Russian.

Flexible external language support

Individual assignments, peak workloads or ongoing multilingual language support – according to your business needs.
